

Results of 2007 Elections to Council of Management

There were only five nominations for the six places becoming vacant on the Council of Management from June 2007, so a ballot was not needed. Three members: Fiona Byatt, Tony Chambers and Janet Todhunter were re-elected. Peter Titley has returned to Council after a year. There is one new member, Sally Anne Oultram.

Name: Fiona Byatt
Lives: Essex
Keeps: Teeswater Sheep and Scots Grey poultry
Member since: 1987
Says: I wish to continue to represent and support the views of members and Support Groups and believe that my long involvement with the Support Groups and breeding rare breeds will enable me to strengthen the link between members and the Trust.

Name: Tony Chambers
Lives: Somerset
Keeps: Hebridean Sheep
Member since: 1991
Says: I am strongly committed to the RBST, and wish to continue my support using my personal experience as a breeder and my activities with Support Groups, and to ensure that RBST Council continues to represent the wishes of members.

Name: Janet Todhunter
Lives: Lancashire
Keeps: Gloucester Cattle
Member since: 1985
Says: My last 3 years as a member of council has given me a greater understanding of the working of the RBST and I fully support the fresh and innovative ideas of the new Chief Executive to take the RBST forward in the future.

Name: Peter Titley
Lives: Staffordshire
Keeps: North Ronaldsay, Hill Radnor and Wensleydale sheep
Member since: 1980
Says: I am seeking to improve and maintain communications across our organisation to ensure that the experience, knowledge and skills of members are deployed effectively and that we achieve a healthy balance between scientific achievements and traditional livestock management.

Name: Sally Anne Oultram
Lives: Yorkshire
Keeps: Clydesdales (Director of the Clydesdale Horse Society)
Member since: 2004
Says: My focus would be to continue to concentrate on creating awareness of the Trust and encouraging new members. My horse "Ted" continues to raise awareness at shows around the country and fronts the Trust's Survivors club junior membership.

Robert Terry
Secretary
4th April 2007